

Compliance made painless. Take as needed.

For pharmacists, there's nothing simple about keeping our planet healthy. Federal, state, and local regulations are shaping every aspect of how pharmaceutical waste is treated and disposed of. So rely on the name other highly regulated businesses trust to keep them industry-compliant and earth-friendly: Waste Management.

Our PharmEcology® services can help you with compliance every step of the way. In fact, we helped write many of the documents now guiding the industry.

With our Sustainable Pharmacy™ suite of services, you can master the details, from identifying your hazardous waste inventory, to learning correct disposal options, to preparing for a Joint Commission Survey, to certification. What's more, these tools can guide you to cost efficiencies and add true business value as you Think Green.®

Think of us as your total prescription for compliance.
